On this sliver of land lies a modest but complete resort - the three-star Layang Layang Island Resort. It consists of 76 superior rooms as well as 10 deluxe rooms. Made of tropical hardwood, it shares the look of a Longhouse, the traditional community homes of Borneo's tribal people

The great hammerhead shark has a wide, thick head with the eyes at the margins. The head is indented at the centre of the "hammer," which is almost rectangular in shape. This shark is grey-brown above with an off-white belly.
